

EVEN START FAMILY LITERACY

- § Enrich language development
- § Educational activities where children and their parents learn together
- § Encourage habits of life-long learning
- § Provide literacy services that support positive family changes

FAMILY LITERACY...

Helping families by opening opportunities and providing resources necessary for family success in the Fairbanks community through literacy-rich, family based education.

A United Way Member Agency and accredited affiliate of Pro Literacy America.

Literacy Council of Alaska

For more information, please contact:

Jerri McDonald (907)456-6212
jerri@literacycouncilofalaska.org

Mandie Frizzell (907)456-6212
mandie@literacycouncilofalaska.org

517 Gaffney Road
Fairbanks, AK 99701

(907) 456-6212 phone

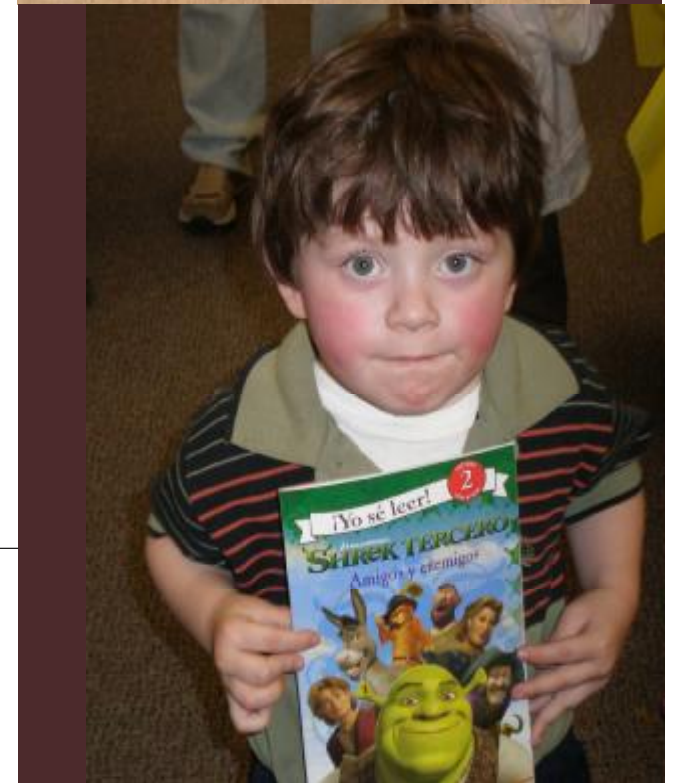

(907) 456-4302 fax

www.literacycouncilofalaska.org

Literacy Council of Alaska

EVEN START

FAIRBANKS FAMILY LITERACY

EVEN START IS FOR FAMILIES

- § Fun Family Activities
- § Family Reading Time
- § Summer Day Camps
- § Learn how to turn everyday activities into fun learning experiences!

EVEN START IS FOR PARENTS

- § English as a Second Language (ESL) reading, writing, and speaking classes
- § One-on-one tutoring
- § GED classes
- § Computer classes
- § Adult citizenship classes
- § Parenting classes

Free preschool is available to parents

EVEN START IS FOR CHILDREN

- § Literacy-rich activities
- § Children's reading time
- § Arts and crafts
- § And much more!

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

- § Parents who want to learn English
- § Parents who want to earn a GED
- § Must have at least one child age 7 or under